De the present con ration.

The President did not have many callers toation in N w York that is bound together by official business until the coming extra session o'clock yesterday afternoon, by the upsetting hate for Virginia and the South, said he is opposed to the estimaten tex because it is a restriction upon negro suffrage, but his candidie for Atterney General, the man who said attend to his official duties. He will not take "honor won't tuy a breakfast," has also said up his permanent abode at the White House that ' he was never in favor of that clause of the constitution which let the pigroes in as chizens." The General also signed a petition for a change in the charter of Petersburg by which the nagroes of that city could be prevented from taking part in the che ion of its musicipal efficies. General Mahana is certunly not a "B urboo," for he forgets fies even of recest occurrence, and is learning new tticks . very day.

Balieve ladies in their rights, their reputations and ing that the lady and the profer were in entire | their characters, under all circumstances and at ignorance of this gossip, I felt, as a friend, a sill hezerde. And I will not ask a clique about

I am, therefore, not responsible in any sense whatever (and I sseuma cose) for this matter. therefore that ultimately such gessip if contine ever excluded, or tried, or even preferred a are not vested in an officer or officers, or minis rights and equal privileges, and no one-not a minister even-bes any power or authority ever members as coming 'from the church," I would have made myself "partie ps criminis" not ceased, but I was bound as a oburch the church had nothing whatever to do-not member, and as a true friend to him, to keep even knowledge thereof. If this ten memhim informed of anything I might hear in bers in a church of a membership of 119 or more | could then unwarrantably sot, and with request, and after his full assurated that be out authority or power, hind the church, then of pure and true friendship, and also upon his the lawful authority of the church would be fally wrested, -her rules, laws, and discipline basely perveried-and her power and prereen thereby, (a promise which he afterward base'y tives grossly ignored, -and no member would violated.) I reluctantly consented to so inform have any protection whatever, and the very him. I soled, therefore, not only from the property of the church itself would be in the purest and highest of motives, and with a bands and under the control of a shifting, base, Christian sense of personal duty, but upon the and userping clique. A more unrighteens, out request of the church clerk, and the direct and raggeous, and prosser violation of Baptist personal request of the paster himself. It church policy and principle, who more reseems, too, the paster had knowledge of the deceing upon, and misrious to the whole Bap-

with publish the same to the world, whon the succumbed, the precedent would have been set, and no female reputation or character could be guarded or protected by this lawful Baptist Christian church; and had I suffered myself to have been so bound, I could never afterward even protest against similar outrages. Ladies must and shall be protected in their rights and privileges of membership in said church, and in of female and male members of her body. Too church at no time could or can inderse their action or preceedings, because to do so would be to indorse upgodliness and sin and give effect to and approval of the grossest violation and baset usurpation of her own powers and authority. Beside she has original jurisdiction and demands in all Cases Proven charges before action or condemnation. The church, therefore, has no record of this so-called meeting and could not even protend to have except through gress fraud and base forgery. In reference to the bifore named two so estied anenymous letters, I state that I never knew till then and there, October 31, 1878, that said persons had ever received any such letters, nor did I knew that any such letters were in existence, nor was I then or have I been permitted to examine the contents of said letters. Berido those letters were charged directly and positivey upon two male members of the church living it Upperville; more than this, by direct and well known testimony I had been at this time absent on a four months' tour in Kansas, the northwest and Canada, thus showing beyond the least shadow of a doubt that I have never been in any wise whatever connected with said lettore. I have refused, therefore, to have the least thing to do with them, except to refer to them truthfulness of my statements. I, therefore, am not responsible for those said letters, and any one who denies these facts is, in the language of Scripture, "a liar and the truth is not in him."
This testimony and the written and verbal adthen presented, in accordance with their missions of my entire truthfulness and inno cency in the entire matter is what cortain porone have been trying to pervert and suppress. Further testimony I withhold. If charges were mede against the paster, it was done by other membere, who bold, presented and pressed their evidence, and who, being eaught, tried to cloak themselves behind my reputation and that of the church. Why afterward were their admissions and the truth suppressed? and in lieu thereof falsehoods and slanders circulated A well known fact is my social and christian standing was, and is too high and consistent for these men, and they know that my varacity was well know and thoroughly established, and that I could not waver-hence their known cons; i-every particular. It was known that I had arranged that indictments against some of these would follow, but upon their acknowledgments, and complete backdown, but more especially fo the sake of the lady involved, I stopped all further proceedings. I condemn with all my heart the deuble-faced acts of these men, as unworthy their professions, and of the characters

But strange to say, the result of this, together with that of the so-called meeting before named, was circulated with som; glaring perversions, and base falsehoods, ann hence came a publish ed item in the Gazatte of July 22, 1830, which item is true. Shortly after the the pastor with some of his clique instituted another investigation which lasted several months, they choosing the mode and material, and having full access to all the testimony. The result of this is, that I was thoroughly and completely vindicated by a unanimous vote of nearly two hundred persons of the highest honor, principal and character. My varacity was thoroughly sustained and recognized, and my conduct endorsed. Thus it is seen, that I have been thoroughly, completely, and honorably vindicated and indorsed three thus in succession, and that too, on every phase of the issues involved. My truthfulness and homorable conduct, is established beyond doubt. And further, in consultation with leading representative Christian gentlemen of the Baptist denomination, I am by them fully in-dorsed. And every lady and gentlemen of honor, principal, and character, recognize and regard my conduct as that of a truthful, trust-

Worthy, and honorable gentleman. So far therefore as the published denials of July 27, 23, 31, 1880, are concerned, I have treated incm, as such deserved with silent con-tempt, as their face and spirit plainly indicated, meddlesomences, prejudgment, and either stupid ignorance of facts, or wilful fa's:fying of the truth and base libel.

I therefore state that any reports in circulation to the contrary of these facts, or any denial here-of, are wicked and infamous lies and base calumaier.

Sofar as 1 am concerned I demand for the church, positive recognition for her scriptural authority, prerogatives and power, that she may be enabled to do justice and aightrousness, and protect the reputation of her male and female members. I heartily sicp; the inspired language of Peter and John -- Whether it be righ; in the sight of God to hearken unto you (men) more than unto God, judge ye." and of Joshua "As for me and my house we will serve the Lord."

In conclusion I say, that my whole course bas been dictated from motives the highest, the noblest and the purest-even for the good of others, and for "Christ's sake and the Gospel's." In this day of evasive doctrines, and crude no-tions of the vast difference between the worldly minded, and the Christian, the church of our Lord should be foremost in vigorous and practical support of good morals and genuine reli-gion; for the virtue and sentiments of every community depend up in the life and the light of the church as fountain and guide. The standard too of the church should be so high that her rure beacon lighe should cast forth the ossence of pure morality, of divine love and purity of joy and exfety of godliness and boli-ness to the Lord, so beautifully bright and so constant, that a sin tosed world might glory in ber preserce, and with increasing love, and confidence, turn to her with triumphant faith and joy, for her holy blessings. When I became a member of the 2nd Baptist church in Upper ville, Va, I became one with all the responsi bi ity which the place, and its sare ty brought out au hority or power, hind the church, then upon me; and among others, was my bounden seven, five, or even one member could do so, and duty to keep the obligations of the church, my vow and her covenant, and to protect her honor and jurity. Where the law of God, and or the church speaks in mandatory terms to every body else and then directly to me, I should de in it cowardly, dishonorable and sintul if I should skulk behind my church privileges for the purpose of disobeying and breaking the suprema law of Christ and His church and of my church yow and covenant. Others may do i but 1-never. The turden of the song of my heart is Christ Jenus-first alway and forever. Respectfully, &c., B. F. FLETCHER.
